By using Driver Matters websites and applications, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

[Collection of your Personal Information]:

To better provide you with products and services offered on Driver Matters websites and applications,

Driver Matters may collect images, videos, cookies, scripts, pixels, and with further technologies to collect information on a real-time basis on your behaviors of usage and navigation.

Personally identifiable information, such as your:

First and Last Name
Mailing Address
E-mail Address
Phone Number

Driver Matters may also collect anonymous demographic information, which is not unique to you, such as your:

Age
Gender

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Driver Matters public messages, this information may be collected and used by others.

Driver Matters do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us.

However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to Driver Matters when you elect to use certain products or services available on Driver Matters websites and applications.

These may include:(a) registering for an account (b) entering a sweepstakes or contest sponsored by Driver Matters or partner(s) (c) signing up for special offers from selected third parties (d) sending Driver Matters an email or chat message. (e) submitting your credit card or other payment information when ordering and purchasing products and services via Driver Matters websites and applications.

We will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you regarding services and/or products you have requested from Driver Matters. We also may collect additional personal or non-personal data for the future use to be included with the new product updates by Driver Matters.

Driver Matters collects and uses your personal information to process the transactions and deliver the services and products you have requested on its websites and applications.

Driver Matters will not use your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from Driver Matters' affiliates.

[Sharing Information with Third Parties]:

Driver Matters does not sell, send or lease its customer lists to third parties.

Driver Matters will not contact you on behalf of external business parameters about any offering.

Your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, phone number) is only referable to the third party when sending you email or postal mail (to fulfill your order), providing customer support, or making better delivery arrangements.

All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Driver Matters, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Driver Matters may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith of business practices that such action is necessary to:

(a) conform to the course of actions of the law or comply with legal process served on Driver Matters websites and applications (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Driver Matters, and or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Driver Matters, or the public.

[Tracking User Behavior]:

Driver Matters may keep track of activities of the websites and applications to help its reinforcement of the services and products together with improving content and correct advertisements.

[Automatically Collected Information]:

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Driver Matters.

This information can include your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses.

This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Driver Matters sites and applications.

[Links]:

Driver Matters websites and applications contain links to the partner sites. Please note that Driver Matters cannot reinforce the governing rules for the content and privacy in partners' practices.

Users need to be aware when they leave Driver Matters sites and applications and to read the privacy statements of partners' sites that collect personally identifiable information.

[Security of your Personal Information]:

Driver Matters secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure with Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol.

When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to the partners' website(s) for a business transaction, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the (SSL) protocol.

Driver Matters strives to take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or alteration of your personal information.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, you acknowledge that:

(a) there are security and privacy limitations inherent to the Internet which are beyond Driver Matters' control, and (b) security, integrity, and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and Driver Matters through its sites and applications cannot be always guaranteed to be 100% satisfied.

[Children Under Thirteen]:

Driver Matters does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parent(s) or guardian(s) for permission to use Driver Matters sites and applications.

[Opt-Out & Unsubscribe from Third Party Communications]:

Driver Matters respects your privacy and therefore an opportunity to opt-out of receiving announcements and updates of products and services is provided by opt-out links or system notifications.

Driver Matters users may also opt-out of receiving any or all communications from the third-party partners of Driver Matters by contacting us here:
